3. Payment of Fees

Please be reminded that payment for the WMC registration is now due. If your federation wishes to make other arrangements you should contact ceo@worldbowling.org as soon as possible.

4. Broadcast Production and Media Rights

With the appointment of sports consultancy agency Reddentes Sports to oversee the broadcast production and media rights distribution for the upcoming WMC, they have since confirmed i-Cable, a leading provider of pay-TV services in Hong Kong, as the Host Production and Broadcaster partner. At this point, Reddentes Sports has secured distribution in Malaysia (Astro) and Singapore (StarHub).

I-Cable will broadcast the last 5 days of Finals. If participating federations have a relationship with their home broadcasters please send that information to megan@worldbowling.org so that WB can negotiate possible broadcast opportunities in their country.

5. Photos and Flags

All participating federations are reminded, to enable the preparation of the Souvenir Programme, a high-resolution passport size photo of EACH participant (including bowlers, officials and media) in JPEG format should be sent to the host federation by email 2018wmc@worldbowling.org on or before October 23, 2018.

All participating federations are reminded to bring along 3 national flags (1 metre x 2 metres), which will be collected by their respective Liaison Officer upon arrival.

6. Transportation Arrangements

Transportation will be provided free of charge to and from airport upon arrival and departure for all teams and accredited supporters as well as to and from hotel and venue except Regal Hongkong Hotel.

Transportation will be provided for teams staying in Regal Hongkong Hotel if the Typhoon NO. 3 signal is hoisted and there is heavy rain or the Yellow Signal for rain and thunderstorm is hoisted.
